ACR Alpine Capital Research Strengthens Client Relations and Marketing with Two New Hires

ST. LOUIS, June 9, 2020 – ACR Alpine Capital Research is pleased to announce two new additions to the firm.

Greg Halvachs joins the Client Relations team in the position of Client Relations Associate. Greg has 20 years of investment management experience, most recently with Argent Capital Management and previously with NISA Investment Advisors. His experience spans the areas of compliance, trading and customer service. Greg has an M.B.A and a B.S from Saint Louis University.

Jennifer “Jen” Rolf has accepted the position of Marketing Director. In her role, Jen will be responsible for managing all aspects of marketing for the firm. She has more than 20 years of investment management experience in marketing, most recently at AllianceBernstein, L.P., and previously with A.G. Edwards & Sons. Jen received her M.A. and B.A. from Saint Louis University.

“Greg will be an added benefit in rounding out the competencies of our client relations team,” said Darryl Grayson, Managing Director, Financial Intermediaries. “And Jen’s extensive marketing experience in the asset management industry will be most valuable in coordinating and implementing ACR’s marketing activities.”

ACR Alpine Capital Research is a fundamental valuation-based asset management firm whose mission is to protect and maximize investors' purchasing power. Our investment philosophy is rooted in principles essential for successfully evaluating fundamental value and risk. ACR was founded in 1999 by Nicholas Tompras, who developed our core investment strategy and research process. Our success today is built on the strength and knowledge of our investment professionals, who consistently work to achieve research and valuation excellence.
