

NEWS RELEASE

May 28, 2025

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ACR Announces New Leadership Roles

St. Louis, MO - ACR Alpine Capital Research is pleased to announce the evolution of ACR's management structure. Effective immediately, the following individuals will assume new and expanded roles within the firm.

- Willem Schilpzand, CFA®: President
- Tim Piechowski, CFA®: Co-Chief Investment Officer
- Mark Unferth: Head of Credit and Private Markets
- Darryl Grayson: Head of Client Relations and Distribution
- Nick Taggart: Managing Director of Client Relations and Business Development
- Jane Atmodjojo: Managing Director of Performance and Reporting

Mitul Nakum will remain Chief Operating Officer, and Founder Nick Tompras, CFA® continues as CEO and Co-CIO to lead the firm strategically. The revised structure enables more focused leadership across business and investment functions while preserving ACR's investment-centric focus. Nick Tompras (CEO), Willem Schilpzand (President), Tim Piechowski (Co-CIO), and Mark Unferth (Head of Credit and Private Markets) will maintain portfolio management responsibilities while also serving the firm in expanded leadership capacities.

ACR remains committed to its mission of protecting and maximizing client purchasing power. These changes reinforce ACR's dedication to strong client-aligned leadership.

ACR refers to the ACR Companies which includes ACR Alpine Capital Research, LP, Alpine Partners Management, LLC, and ACR CV, LLC, and all subsidiaries, holding companies, and investment vehicles held by these three entities.